- b. Moon Lake Park pavilion board replacement: Work bee to replace the bottom vertical boards scheduled for July 12th at 10:00 a.m. The town agreed to pay for half of the total cost of $800.00.
- c. A walking trail from John Olson Park to Moon Lake Park has been established with white walk way lines placed on County Highway H. Crossing signs will also be placed on County Hwy H. during the Blueberry Festival.

Diabetes Report: Lona Schmidt is conducting a 7 session program, "Stepping On" at the I. R. Community Center regarding an age based program for fall prevention.

Website: Lots of "hits." 58,500 in June of 2013 compared to 31,000 in 2012.

Facebook: Check for weekly announcements.

OLD BUSINESS

- a. An updated address, phone number and email list has been printed and sent via email to the club membership.
- b. Wayside Park cleanup: Not needed to be done by our club this year. Possibly next year.
- c. Thank you to all who worked at the June 8th Summer Fest. It was recommended not to set up the new inflatable next year. Lots of work setting up, taking down and very little monetary profit. The inflatable also needs to be patched due to critter gnawing.
- d. Used cell phones can also be turned in just like used eye glasses.

NEW BUSINESS

- a. Dick Berge requested help for "Trout Unlimited" in the use of pontoon boats for fly fishing for "Healing Waters" a program for veterans to fly fish on August 17th.
- b. Nan Olson requested to personally use of stage for entertainment at the Battle Axe on July 6th.
Motion: Tess Eisenhauer/Chris Olson. Approved.
- c. Installation: Two new Lions were installed. Karen Maron (Sponsor Dick Berge) and Pat Anderson (Sponsor Nan Olson). Welcome!!

The regular meeting was adjourned. Motion: Dick Berge/Ray Levine. Approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Linda Hultman, secretary
